

BOYS SLAY AGED MAN FOR HIS GOLDShocking Crime is Brought to Light by Arrests
in New Jersey.GRANDSON HELD
AS ACCOMPLICEWilliam Read Attacked by Young Murderers as He Was Sleeping.Vineland, N. J., Nov. 18.—The arrest
last night of Walter Zeller, 19 years old, and Cline Wheeler, his twenty-year-old companion, charged with the murder of William Read, the grandfather of Zeller, last Friday night, has caused a sensation in this section of the state. Zeller has confessed to the murder plot but seeks to lay the actual commission of the crime upon Wheeler.Herbert Grigg, another nineteen year-old boy, who is implicated in the confession, disappeared from his father's farm yesterday and has not since been seen. Zeller and Wheeler have admitted that the motive was robbery. Read was more than seventy years old and quite wealthy. He lived with his son-in-law, William E.
Cooper. Zeller is a son of Mrs.
Cooper by her first husband. The aged man was found dead in his room
last Saturday morning, he having been shot and beaten. Much of the money
the old man was in the habit of displaying, was missing and the police immediately decided that robbery was the motive. In looking around for a clue suspicion fell upon young Zeller
with the result that he was taken into custody last evening after the funeral.
He stoutly denied the accusation but finally broke down and told of the crime.

Earlier Attempt to Rob Old Man.

Zeller, in his confession, according to the officers made the first attempt to rob the aged man on Halloween
while Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were away from the house. He says Wheeler and Grigg were with him at the time. Before they could get to the old man, he said, Read awoke and they fled, fearing he would recognize them.Last Friday, according to the detectives, Zeller learned that his parents were going to the theater and he and his two companions again laid plans to rob the grandfather. The stepfather had given Walter and his brother, William, money to go to the theater and they went, Walter remaining only part of the evening and returning before the performance was over. Zeller says he remained away from the house while his grandfather was being killed.

STATE CLOSING IN
ON RAY LAMPHEREBurning of Guinness Home Brought Out in Detail
at the Trial.WITNESSES TELL
OF OIL PURCHASEState Will Not Use All of
the Witnesses It Has Summoned.Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 18.—An attempt to still further establish the fact that Ray Lamphere was hounding Mrs.
Belle Guinness and making life miserable for her and to show definitely the date of the Helgeton murder, in the profits of which Lamphere is supposed by the prosecution to have shared and over the division of which it is contended Mrs. Guinness and Lamphere first fell out, the state today offered considerable evidence to the jury.The hired man Maxson's story of the fire, his own escape from the burning building and his efforts to get into the brick part were told this morning.
Attempts by defense to cause him to change his story were unavailing. It was brought out strongly that the oil can brought home on the afternoon of April 27 by Mrs. Guinness, filled with kerosene and placed in the hallway of the frame part, was found after the fire on the floor in the middle of the cellar.

Tells of Oil Purchase.

George Wrase, clerk in a grocery where Mrs. Guinness bought her groceries the day before the fire, testified that Mrs. Guinness purchased two gallons of kerosene in a five gallon can,
which was something unusual. While she was in the store Lamphere came in and bought some tobacco. He stared hard at Mrs. Guinness but neither spoke, the woman apparently trying to keep away from him. Wrase said that Lamphere went out of doors
and stood on the sidewalk and kept
looking into the store until the woman left. The witness said there were tears in Mrs. Guinness' eyes when she returned after having been absent from the store a short time.A memorandum book found on Lam-phere when he was arrested was offered in evidence. Receipts given by Lamphere to Mrs. Guinness were also offered in evidence, the signatures being identified by John W. Heatbrook.
These were offered to the jury to show
the business relations between Mrs.
Guinness and Lamphere and to establish the date of Lamphere's trip to Michigan City and the date of Helgeton's murder, Jan. 14.It became known this afternoon that Judge Richter was investigating a report that an attempt had been made

Two Chinese Reactionaries Who May Disturb Affairs of the Bereaved Empire

YUAN SHAI KAI.

PRINCE CHING.

Yuan Shai Kai is grand councillor of the Chinese empire and one of the most powerful figures in court circles. He is supposed to have vast influence over the new dowager empress. Prince Ching is believed to be plotting to seize the throne.GERMANY IS COOLER
TOWARD PROMISE
OF KAISERFear it is Too Late for Him
to Live Down His Impulsiveness.Berlin, Nov. 18.—The results of the presentations made to Emperor William yesterday by Chancellor Von Buelow, and the consequent imperial pledge to keep both speeches and acts within close constitutional bounds, are measured in colder mood by the people of Germany today.The emperor is still much isolated from the sympathies of both the upper and lower levels of society.
The talk among the friends of the chancellor and the ministers today is that they must wait and see how the emperor acts when the next keenly interesting public question comes up.Doubt exists as to whether, at the age of fifty, the emperor's impulsive
and candid disposition can be so modified by the events of the past fortnight
that he will depart from a practice he has followed during the twenty years of his reign.Prince Von Buelow and his party
will pursue an opportunist policy, affirming absolutely that the imperial conduct will faithfully follow the imperial word.

FRENCH PRESS DIVIDED.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The opinion of the French press is divided regarding the international effect of Emperor William's consent to avoid in the future,
personal intervention in the foreign affairs of the empire. While a majority of the papers consider his majesty's assurances beneficial to the country and a victory for the German people as against personal rule, several of them and notably the Figaro, express confidence in the sincerity of his majesty's pacific intentions and they recall occasions upon which he interfered in the interests of peace.
They believe it unfortunate that this check upon the Chauvinism of German bureaucracy has been removed.

COUNT BONI'S SUIT HALTS.

Hearing in Case to Get Children from Prince Helie Postponed.Paris, Nov. 18.—The hearing of the suit brought by Count Boni de Castellane against Princess Helie de Sagan for the custody of his three children, was today postponed until November 25. This action was taken at the request of Albert Clemenceau, counsel for the princess, who announced that he had just entered the case and that it was consequently impossible for him to proceed today.Princess de Sagan was Miss Anna Gould, of New York before she married the Count de Castellane. She secured a divorce from him, after which
she married Prince Helie de Sagan.JEALOUSIES RIFE

ENTIRELY QUIETPicked Troops are Ready to Suppress Uprising
if It Comes.Pekin, Nov. 18.—The situation this morning shows no material change as over yesterday, but rumors are rife of political jealousies at the palace. Considerable adverse comment has been aroused by the fact that Prince Chun,
the regent, is ignoring the Chinese in announcing the composition of the committees that are to have the obse-quies of the late emperor and empress in hand. The only two Chinese appointees are Yuan Shi Hai and Liu Chun Lin; the remainder are Man-
chus.The acts of Prince Chun are clothed with full imperial authority and show that he is jealous of the Manchu prerogatives and guards them jealously.
His edicts show clearly the literary style of Chang Chi Tung, a member of the grand council, but otherwise
Chang Chi Tung is not active in affairs of state and appears to have been eclipsed.It is reported that Prince Ching,
president of the board of foreign affairs, has suffered physical collapse on account of his exertions and the excitement of the past few days. His political position is precarious and it is believed that his career is practically at an end.The fourteen native banks that suspended payment a few days ago, today
were reopened and began to pay out money from funds supplied by the government for the purpose of tid-
ing over the panic. They are under police supervision. The payments are to continue for a period of five days.

WILL NOT GO TO PEKIN.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Tuan
Fang, the influential Chinese viceroy of Nanking who, it was thought,
might go to Peking in consequence of the changed conditions there, has declined not to proceed to that city, according to a dispatch received from Consul General Charles Denby, at Shanghai, because the situation at Peking is too uncertain.

through the eighteenth were conferred during the day at the full convocation of the Scottish Rite of the Valley of Fort Wayne today, including
the rites of the Darius Council, Princes of Jerusalem, and the Emanuel Chapter of Rose Croix. The big banquet at 6 o'clock this evening
when Governor-elect Marshall will speak will conclude the convocation
that is accounted the most satisfactory
in recent years.The class in the Darius Council this morning consisted of forty-eight candidates, the total number upon whom degrees have been conferred during yesterday and today being ten more.
As this is the largest class in the history of the Lodge of Perfection and as the enthusiasm and interest evidenced was also much greater than
at any time within the past few years,
those in charge feel peculiarly gratified. There will probably be only one more convocation of the Lodge of Perfection held in the Masonic Temple,
as the new Scottish Rite cathedral
will be completed by next fall.Among those in attendance from out-of town are: Messrs. William E.
Sprock, S. W. Snavely, R. E. Ricketts
and George E. Kistner, from Elkhart; Joseph Harrison, Columbia City; W.
W. Anspaugh, Edgerton; George E.
Spake, Monroeville; C. E. Hendrick,

things taken was a big rubber coat.

WITNESS IN COURTHead of Oil Trust Called in Government Suit to Dissolve.GIVES HISTORY
OF GREAT OCTOPUSBegins at Outset of His Carreer as a Dealer in Petroleum.New York, Nov. 18.—John D.
Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil company, made his appearance as a witness for the defense in the federal suit to dissolve the so-called oil
trust today.Former Judge Franklin Ferris, master of the proceedings, had ordered that no spectators be permitted to enter the chamber and policemen posted at the door turned back an insistent throng that besieged the room where the testimony was being taken.Mr. Rockefeller had scarcely entered when his counsel motioned him to take the witness chair. The president of the Standard Oil company gave his testimony in a clear, resonant voice,
which could be heard all over the court room."Mr. Rockefeller, what is your full name?" asked Mr. Milburn.

"John D. Rockefeller."

"Where do you live?"

"My legal residence is this city at four West Fifty-fourth street.""What was your first connection in the oil business?""About 1860 or 1862, not earlier than 1860 nor later than 1862. I was quite a young man, much younger than I am now."In reply to the question as to who were associated with him in the oil business in the beginning, he gave the names of Morris, James and Richard
Clark, and Samuel Andrews."A co-partnership was formed," said
Mr. Rockefeller, "known as Andrews, Clark and Company, which operated at Cleveland, Ohio."He said the refinery was a small one.

Organized Old Firm.

He said the refinery was a small one
and his co-partnership with Andrews, Clark and Company continued until 1865, when it was dissolved."I bought the business and the property and I organized the firm of Rockefeller and Andrews," he said."Did you continue in the refinery business?"

"Yes."

"Did your business increase?"

"Yes," said Mr. Rockefeller, "it increased steadily.""What developments or change in the company took place later?""Well, in 1866 there was a change.
The firm was William Rockefeller and Company. The 'Rockefeller' was William, my brother, and the 'Company'
was Rockefeller and Andrews."The refinery of this company, Mr.
Rockefeller said, was in Cleveland and that afterwards another company under the name of William Rockefeller and Company was organized in New York. The same firm members that composed the Cleveland company made up the New York company.Asked what had been the course of the oil business up to the time of the organization of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio, Mr. Rockefeller replied:
"We had had a steady growth and increasing organization of the first
firm in 1860 or 1862 until that time."

Stuck to the Oil Business.

Mr. Rockefeller said that every member of the firm devoted his entire time and attention to promoting the company's growth and that none of them had any other business.Mr. Rockefeller said the company did a refining and warehouse business
and that his brother, William Rockefeller, took up his residence in New York to develop the business here
and to save expenses."When did the next change take place?""In 1867 all the properties of Rockefeller and Andrews, William Rockefeller and Company and Rockefeller and Company were taken over under the firm name of Rockefeller, Andrews and Flagler. Mr. Flagler was a man of large business experience and was a valuable addition to the firm. A large amount of capital was put into the firm."Mr. Rockefeller said that his company engaged in the refining of oil which was sold in this country and abroad.

"What was the next change?"

"I think that three years later, in 1870, the Standard Oil Company of Ohio was organized with a capital of $1,000,000 and we enlisted much capital in the company."

Tells of Refining Plants.

The first field for the production of crude oil was Venango county, in the western part of Pennsylvania, said
Mr. Rockefeller. He looked to Ohio to obtain the crude oil and the refining plants of the company were at Cleveland, Pittsburg, Parkersburg, Baltimore and New York."What was the refining points in the oil regions?"

WOMAN BREAKS
DOWN ON STANDMrs. Johnson Overcome in Stout Trial Because
Husband is Ill.STATE IS MAKING RAPID PROGRESSLaDuke, Who Confessed, is to Testify Near End of the Week.When Mrs. Richard Johnson, who was formerly Mrs. Jennie Heltzell, and testified under that name at the Herman Miller hearing, was called to the witness stand in the Stout trial
this morning, she was evidently nervous and finally broke down and cried.
It developed that her husband to whom she was recently married, had been kicked Sunday by a horse, and is a patient at St. Joseph hospital.
Dr. E. J. McOscar, who attended him says that he has a deep bruise in his chest and that he is being kept in bed
more for rest and quiet than because his injuries are severe.He will be a witness in the case and will be able to testify in the course of a day or two. Witnesses were promptly on hand today and quickly
disposed of, and most of the testimony was the same as had been given in the Miller case, except to show that Stout's manner changed after the trial
and that he quit drinking to excess
and was less jovial than he had been.
Some testimony that the state endeavored to introduce on this point was excluded by Judge O'Rourke.Judge R. K. Erwin and P. B. Colerick, for the defense, stated today that they had not fully determined whether or not they will put Herman Miller on the stand, and added that they will be governed largely by the circumstances.Fred LaDuke, the star witness for the state, will not be called before the latter part of the week, as the prosecution had this afternoon eighteen witnesses to examine before he comes in the regular order. It is probable that a week more will be necessary to finish the evidence of the state, and it will hardly close before Tuesday of Wednesday of next week.

Clauson First Witness.

Mandir Clauson, employed at the Pennsylvania planing mills, who had lived in and about Woodburn for about twelve years, was the first witness Wednesday morning and was in Ben Thomas' saloon on the night of June 6 at the time Marshall Columbus Croy and Jack Bennett entered. He said John Stout, John Baker and Fred LaDuke were present and his testimony was directed toward showing that the marshal and Stout had no private conversation. One of the statements credited to Stout after the murder is that he had arranged to go with Croy fishing the day he was killed. Judge R. K. Erwin in the cross-examination simply tested the memory of the witness as to the little incidents and the contradiction that he brought out was a difference as to the size of the glasses of beer drunk
by Croy and Bennett. The latter said they were "shells," while Clauson was positive they were of the "big"
variety.The witness said he had been in the calaboose at Woodburn once for
"just holierin' around a little."

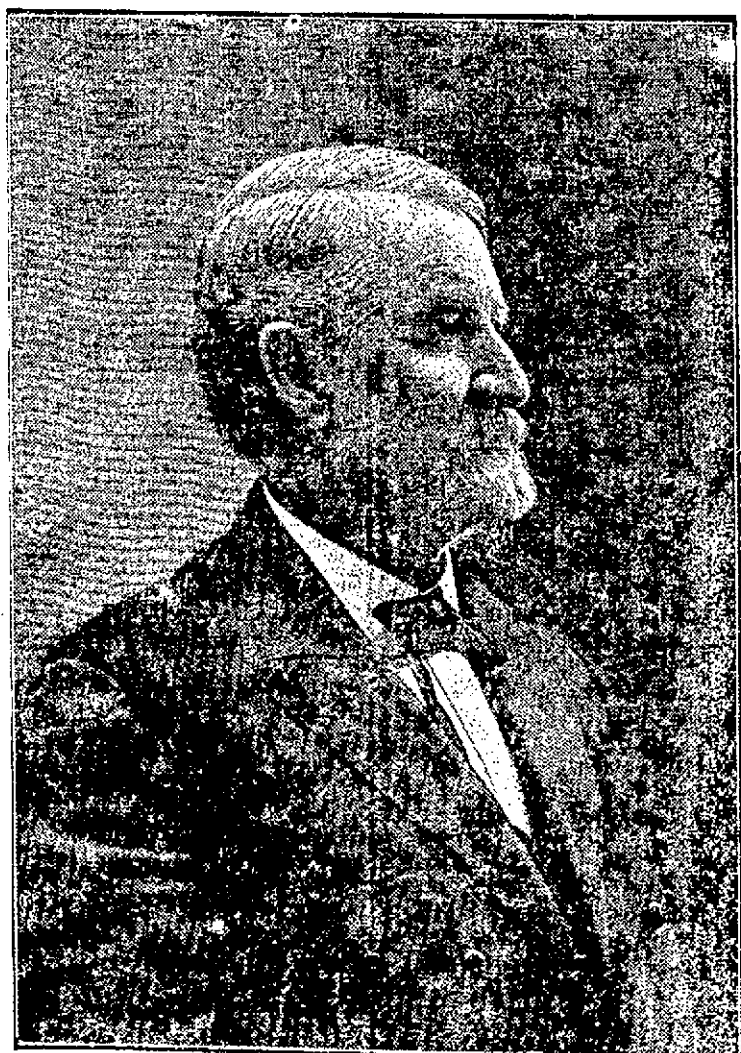

Mrs. Richard Johnson Testifies.

Mrs. Richard Johnson, nee Mrs. Jennie Heltzell, a sister of Mrs. William Wearley, has married since the trial of the Miller case. Her testimony was practically the same as she gave before. In common with the other members of the Wearley household she told of the incidents of the discovery of the burglary, of the fact that she was with her sister and saw a man
in the window of the Faulkner saloon, heard the shots and the command to halt and recognized the voice as that of John Stout. She also said that as she went home about 11 o'clock the night of the murder she met three men on Union street, the thoroughfare
on which the Faulkner saloon is located.The story was in line with that given at the Miller hearing and was put in by the state to corroborate the other witnesses who testified to the same facts, including the statement that the man who entered the saloon
was broad-shouldered and wore a slouch hat.

Husband of Witness in Hospital.

The witness was nervous during the examination and Prosecutor Thomas brought out the fact that it was because her husband had been removed to a hospital.She had seen John Stout when he was called before the grand jury and he had remarked that it would not take him long to tell all he knew.
The witness also told of the disappearance of the Wearley "setting hen"
which is supposed to have been eaten
in the Thomas saloon the night of the murder.Judge Erwin brought out on his cross-examination the fact that the witness was at one time a member of a party at Ted Motter's and that the marshal was sent there and broke up the gathering. She also said she had been housekeeper for her present husband.

Quits Circuit Court Bench With Honors
After Twenty Years as Judge

JUDGE JOSEPH W. ADAIR, OF COLUMBIA CITY.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 18.— Marking his retirement after twenty years of service as judge of the Whitley-Noble circuit court, Judge Joseph W. Adair was the guest of honor at a banquet given in this city last evening
by members of the Whitley county bar.
Governor-elect Thomas R. Marshall presided as toastmaster, and the responses were by members of the bar
who have practiced in Judge Adair'scourt for many years. Another speaker was Judge Walter Ollis, of Fort Wayne, who was Judge Adair's predecessor upon the bench. All of the speakers paid feeling tributes to Judge Adair's fine ability, unswerving probity
and kindly personality. After January 1 Judge Adair will resume the practice of law in Columbia City. He is succeeded upon the bench by Judge Luke
H. Wrigley, of Albion.

STATE CLOSING IN ON RAY LAMPHERE

to tamper with some of the state's witnesses.
Witnesses Not Needed.
Associate Counsel Sutherland, of the state's attorney's office, announced this morning that the state would not use a number of the witnesses originally subpoenaed in the trial of Lamphere because it was felt that certain propositions had already been fully established and further evidence along these lines would be superfluous.
"We have proved beyond any doubt that Mrs. Guinness is dead and that it was her body that was found in the ruins of the fire with the bodies of the three children," said Mr. Sutherland. "We have also introduced evidence to prove the threats made against Mrs. Guinness by Lamphere, and Lamphere's actions on the morning of the fire have been told so fully and corroboratively that although we have still more evidence along that line we are not going to use it. Lamphere's selling of the fire is next to be shown. We expect to finish the evidence Friday or Saturday."
Contention in Defense.
From a statement made today by counsel for the defense, it became known that the attorneys for Lamphere will not be worried if the state does prove that Lamphere set fire to the house, for the contention of the defense now is that Mrs. Guinness disposed of the children and then committed suicide and that all were dead before the house was burned.

Unusual grounds are advanced by the Connecticut Fire Insurance company for refusal to pay to Executor Wesley Fogle, of the Belle Guinness estate the face of the policies, $2,300 on the house and contents, all of which were destroyed in the fire on the morning of April 28th. The company refused to pay on the ground that they will have to be shown that Mrs. Guinness did not set fire to the house herself, and also they contend that the place was used by the owner for illegitimate purposes—murder and wholesale murder at that.
Joseph Marxson, the hired man, the only person to escape from the burning house on the morning of the fire, was the first witness on the stand this morning. He resumed the story of the fire at the point where it was interrupted last evening by the adjournment of court.

ROCKEFELLER IS WITNESS IN COURT

"Titusville was an important point and Oil City, too, and there were other refineries up and down Oil Creek."
"How did you get the crude oil?"
"Well, we brought it through the railroad to Cleveland."
"What had been the course of the development of the industry at that time?"
"There had been rapid development in the cleansing and refining of oil." The business of refining oil was profitable and as a result he said, many refineries were built.
"People turned to this business of refining oil who were not necessarily the best trained business men. All sorts of refineries were built, according to the means and capital at the command of the builders."

The Standard Oil company put up all the refineries possible, but in general the buildings were not up to the average of those in Cleveland.
"Was Mr. Andrews a practical refiner?"
"That was the reason he was given a part in the business," said Mr. Rockefeller.

WOMAN BREAKS DOWN ON STAND

band for some time before her marriage. She was not broken down on any material point and insisted when examined about the voice that gave the command to halt that she believed it was John Stout's.
Ground for impeachment was laid by asking the witness if she had not stated to John Ryan that the voice she heard was that of "Red" Baker, and she said she had not told him "any such thing." She also denied having said before the grand jury the voice was that of Baker.
Was at Faulkner's Saloon.
Louis Ort was one of the party in Joe Faulkner's saloon the night of the murder and was there from about 9 to 11 o'clock. He slept in the office of a livery barn on Main street and was awakened after the shooting by the night watchman at the Woodburn Lumber company's plant, who pounded on his window and called him three times. Then he and the watchman and another man walked along the cement walk in front of the West Saylor residence. The testimony of this witness was to show that there was some noise and disturbance on the streets around the dwelling occupied by the Saylor's.

Telephone Awakened Him.

Henry Keller was awakened by the ringing of the telephone bell the morning of the murder and went down to the Faulkner saloon where he found the premises guarded. He learned later that William Keller's machine shop had been entered and that a sledge hammer, a saw, a chisel, a rasp and a piece of leather belting had been stolen. The handle of the sledge had been sawed half in two to make it easier to carry. It was indicated by the testimony that a number of obstacles would naturally have been encountered between the window that was opened and the point at which the tools were found. This was for the purpose of showing that the man who took them was familiar with the location of the machinery in the shop. He said Herman Miller had frequently visited the shop and knew of the arrangement of the interior. These tools, with the exception of the saw, were found at the Faulkner saloon the next morning.

He identified marks made on the door as having been made by the chisel, because there was a nick in it that left a little ridge where it was used. Marks on the window, he said, were made from left to right, to show that the person making them had used his left hand.

Tells of Robbery of Shop.

William F. Keller, proprietor of the machine shop that was robbed, was called next and his testimony was substantially the same as that given by the witness preceding him touching the robbery of the shop and the taking of his tools. He identified the rasp by means of a missing tooth, which he said was imbedded in his thumb at the time it was broken out. He testified that the marks on the door and window at the saloon were made from left to right and that John Baker is left handed. He also said that the chisel is missing and he has never seen it since the day before his shop was entered.

Henry Heckman was one of the party in the Faulkner saloon the night before the murder and spent the night at the livery barn, where Louis Ort was employed. He told of being awakened that night by the rapping on the window and the calling of Ort. His testimony was to corroborate Ort as to the noise that was made near the Saylor residence immediately following the shooting of the town marshal.

One to Discover Robbery.

He was one of the men who discovered the fact that the Keller machine shop had been robbed. He noticed that a street light at the corner of the Keller shop was burning brightly. He added that neither Stout, Baker, Miller or LaDuke was on the street before daylight the morning of the murder. He saw Stout next morning near Reddison's saloon and spoke to him and he volunteered no statement about murder and did not discuss it, though he was generally good natured and talked a great deal. His manner changed, the witness said, after the murder and he was very quiet.

The Afternoon Evidence.

Henry Heckman's cross-examination was not finished and he was recalled after the noon recess. He was asked only a few general questions to show that Stout had refused to drink with him before the murder, as well as after it had been committed.
Herman Messman, employed as a machinist at the Keller machine shop, testified that he had examined the marks on the window at Faulkner's saloon and that they were made from left to right. He was not cross examined.

Frank Faulkner, jr., nephew of the proprietor of the saloon that was robbed, passed down the alley back of his uncle's saloon shortly after 6 o'clock the morning Marshal Croy was killed and noticed some tracks in the mud that he said were made by a rubber boot and they pointed in the direction of a sod path that led up to Herman Miller's house. He had seen Miller wear rubber boots. He stated on cross examination that he had seen other people wear rubber boots and was questioned at some length about the tracks, but stuck to his original statement.

Ernst Scheppelmann was in Woodburn the night of the murder and arrived back in town from a dance ten minutes after the body of the marshal was found. He had seen tracks in the alley Saturday morning after the murder, but he could not tell whether they were made by a rubber boot or not.

The cross examination was devoted to showing that there had been a number of people about the saloon and in the alley before he saw the tracks in the mud.

Gets Laugh on Judge Erwin.

Judge H. K. Erwin attempted to test the knowledge of the witness as to the size of shoes and feet and stuck up his own foot.
"About how long do you think my foot is?" he asked.
"Oh, twelve or fifteen inches," answered the witness, which caused a laugh at the expense of the judge.

Julius Huguenard, formerly a deputy sheriff, was at Woodburn the morning of the murder to investigate and saw the tracks in the alley and said that they were, in his opinion, made by a person who was running.

He stated on cross examination that he saw no tracks in the alley other than those which he thought were made by a rubber boot.

Jesse Lindemuth, who was in charge of the telephone exchange at Woodburn the night of the murder, was questioned as to the messages he received from the Wearley shop the night of the murder and told he had called the sheriff and notified the towns around Woodburn to be on the lookout for burglars. He had a good view from his windows and did not see anybody escape from the town nor did he see anyone run away from the Faulkner saloon.

RECOGNIZED STOUT'S VOICE.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wearley Testify in Murder Case.

Mrs. William Wearley, wife of the proprietor of the meat market adjoining the Faulkner saloon, was called late Tuesday afternoon. She first testified as to the arrangement of the building which was occupied as a shop and dwelling, stating that her bedroom was on the ground floor next to the saloon and that from a window upstairs part of the window through which the saloon was entered is visible.

She told of being awakened by the noise made by burglars, of calling her husband, of the telephone messages to the marshal and to Joe Faulkner and of going upstairs and calling her sister who went with her to the window where she saw a broad-shouldered man wearing a slouch hat standing at the saloon window. Next she heard a shot fired followed by the command, "Halt, halt! Stand back there, I say," and then a second shot. She said she recognized the voice as that of John Stout, whom she had known for some time, as he had dealt in the butcher shop and had taken meals at her home.

After the murder a couple of months she heard John Stout talking and it then came to her that the voice she heard the night of the murder was his. She described the arrival of the Faulkners, the finding of the body of Columbus Croy and said she recognized it as that of the marshal. She heard several rigs pass her house that night.

On cross-examination the witness was asked if she had not stated before the grand jury that she did not recognize Stout's voice and said she had, but that she had "never been in a place like that before and was so scared she didn't know just what to say." This grand jury examination took place after she heard Stout talking at the Woodburn depot.

Husband Tells Story.
William Wearley followed his wife on the stand and related substantially the same story she did with the exception that he did not see a man in the window of the saloon as he remained downstairs and could not get a view of the interior from where he stood.

He has known Stout for a number of years from having sold him meat at his shop and from having employed him at various times and was familiar with the sound of his voice. He had had the prisoner in his employ and had noted many times the peculiar expression, "I say," which was used in the command to Croy to stand back.

Mr. Wearley's testimony was along the same lines as given in the Miller case. Judge Erwin in his cross-examination asked why the witness had not told him certain facts when they had a private talk at Woodburn and he answered that he did not think it necessary.

BOYS SLAY AGED MAN FOR HIS GOLD

"I hadn't anything to do with the murder," he sobbed. "Cline and Herbert killed grandpop. I stayed four blocks from the house while they did it. Wheeler fired the shot and fifteen minutes later he came up to me with Griggs and said, 'My God, Walter, we have killed your grandfather!'"

The detectives told Zeller that Wheeler had confessed that he (Zeller) had an active part in the murder, but he again denied it.

Wheeler was arrested at his home here shortly after Zeller was taken into custody.

Detectives Lore and Spencer will not say at this time what Zeller and Wheeler told them about the $1,500 alleged to be missing. The detectives hope to find the money today.

From what Zeller told the detectives, the grandfather was asleep when attacked. The case found in the Cooper barn Sunday is alleged to have been lying in Read's room on Friday. The detectives say that the old man was struck with it by one of the boys. Although partly stunned, the aged man is said to have taken his pistol from under his pillow and Wheeler is alleged to have taken it from him. It is believed by the detectives that Read was killed because the boys feared he would recognize them.

CASE IS HALTED BY SOME INTRICATE LAW POINTS

Neuman Damage Suit Will Be Hotly Contested—
News in Courts.

Before the work of taking evidence was begun in the superior court today in the case of Peter Neumann, who is seeking to recover damages in the sum of $15,000 from the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad company for the loss of a foot at Ridgeville, attorneys for the defense filed a demurrer to the complaint, setting up the fact that Neuman had accepted benefits from the Voluntary Relief and had signed an agreement waiving claims against the company for damages. This and other legal complications in the case were argued at length by Attorney W. C. Ryan for the plaintiff and Judge Zollars and F. E. Zollars for the railroad company, and so many intricate points were involved that Judge Heaton deferred the case until 3 o'clock this afternoon in order to permit attorneys to cite authorities. The jury was excused until that hour. Neumann was a fireman on the Grand Rapids road, and many railroad men were in attendance at the trial.

Wants Divorce and Alimony.

Elmira McElroy has filed in the circuit court a complaint in which she seeks a divorce from Charles H. McElroy, alimony in the sum of $500 and custody of the children. The McElroys were married in 1900 and separated November 17, 1908. The plaintiff is a resident of Washington township. Emrick & Emrick filed the complaint.

Wife Thrice Abandoned.

In a suit for divorce filed by Dora R. Bauer in the circuit court seeking severance of the matrimonial ties which have bound her to Theodore Bauer, the wife asserts that they were married July 23, 1892, and that the husband on three separate occasions deserted her, the last time in 1906. She says he utterly failed to provide for her, and asks not only a divorce but the custody of their minor children. Billinger and Houk represent the plaintiff.

Says It Will Work Reform.

Attorney T. B. Ellison, who on behalf of the Ellison Realty company has filed an action in the superior court against road and township officials in Abbot township, says his effort is to correct abuses which have been prevalent over the state for some years in connection with the working of the road tax assessed against railroad companies. Mr. Ellison says it has been the practice of the companies to sublet this work to individuals who have taken it at a figure below par, and that road and township officials have allowed the sub-contractors pay at the rate of time-and-one-half when so much as 1 1/2 yards of gravel were hauled at a single load. This, says Mr. Ellison, is a greater compensation than is allowed by law, and he is seeking to prevent its payment. He estimates that in a single road district it will amount to $250 annually.

Notes in the Courts.

The will of Margaret Hanna, executed February 16, 1903, has been probated. It bequeathes her estate to the husband, and at his death provides that it shall revert to the children.
The case of Elmer Hickman against Henry M. Williams, venued from Allen county to Huntington, has been set for trial December 10. Hickman sues for $1,000 damages for alleged slander.

BAR ENDORSES SHIVELY.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 18.—B. F. Shively, of South Bend, yesterday was endorsed by the St. Joseph County Bar association in his contest for the United States senate. The resolutions adopted by the lawyers were prepared and offered by George E. Clarke, who stamped the state for Taft and Watson.

ACTION ON PAVING DEFERRED UNTIL DECEMBER 3

Property Owners Renew
Objections and Paving
Officials Explain.

After a big delegation of property owners had filed objections to the acceptance of the paving work as done on Sutfenfield, Brackenridge and Taylor streets and Columbia avenue, and officials of the Metropolitan Engineering and Construction company had declared they were willing to meet all reasonable demands in settlement for the work, the board of public works Tuesday evening sent the whole matter over until December 3. At that time there will be a hearing for final acceptance of the work of confirmation of assessment rolls for the work on Taylor and Brackenridge streets. There has been no action as to Columbia avenue or Sutfenfield street. Meanwhile the board of works is asking that the property owners on the streets affected get together and appoint a committee to represent them in the matter in order that the hearings may be more expeditious.

There was bitter objections by some of the property owners to the paving done by the Metropolitan company, though it sifted down to an acknowledgment that the only fault lay in the surfacing, which is developing cracks. These, the company assert, will "iron out" by use and do not affect the durability of the pavement. Property owners on the other hand, feel that inasmuch as they are "paying the freight," they should not be compelled to take chances in the matter. President Palmer, of the Metropolitan company, said he would accept the contract prepared by City Attorney Colerick for a forfeit repair bond of $4,000 on Columbia street and a proportionate sum for other streets, the money to be used in resurfacing these streets in case the work is necessary at the expiration of the time limit, August 1, 1909. Mr. Palmer also agreed to an amendment suggested by Attorney H. I. Smith in behalf of Lakeside property owners, extending the guarantee limit to January 1, 1910. The whole matter, however, was deferred for later action.

Meat Ordinance Passes.

The city council, in special session Tuesday evening, passed by unanimous vote what is known as the Langard meat ordinance. This is an amendment by which farmers or other persons not regularly engaged in the meat business shall be permitted to sell meats in the city of Fort Wayne without payment of license, but such meat shall be subject to city inspection.

Finest Fire Station in State.

The new 35-foot aerial ladder fire truck recently purchased by the city was installed at No. 3 fire station last evening, and Mayor Hosey declares that the No. 3 station is beyond all question the best equipped fire station in Indiana. It includes in addition to the new aerial ladder, a large sized steamer, a chemical engine, a hose wagon, a coal wagon and reserve fire apparatus. Twelve head of horses are now quartered in the station to handle the equipment, all of which is available for instant service in firefighting.

JEALOUSIES RIFE IN ROYAL PALACE

The Chinese capitol does not require Tuan Fang's presence. All is quiet at Shang Hai.
The state department has no detailed advice regarding internal political conditions in China growing out of the change in the rulers, Mr. Rockhill, the American minister, in his dispatches having confined himself largely to statements that outwardly all is quiet in the capitol city. Tuan Fang is a Manchur and several years ago made an extended visit to the United States to study American institutions.

PEKIN AND TIEN TSIN QUIET.

Tokio, Nov. 18.—All official advice received from China show that Peking and Tien Tsin are quiet. There is reason to believe that an agreement has been reached between the conflicting elements and no disturbances are expected for the present. It is deemed probable that no important action of any kind will be taken before next spring.
The Japanese government is not considering any reaffirmation of its policy toward China, believing that the position of Japan is well understood by all the powers.

MEASURES TO KEEP ORDER.

Harbin, Manchuria, Nov. 18.—Extraordinary measures have been taken to preserve order in case of any outbreak as a result of the death in Peking of the emperor and the dowager empress of China. Immediately after the death of the emperor was known here, the best Chinese troops in Manchuria were ordered to Peking.

SAYS LODGE KEPT LIQUOR.

Applicant for Saloon License Declares He Dispensed Beer.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 18.—A surprise was sprung upon the defense yesterday in the appeal of the application of Henry Beernit to retail liquors on Madison street. Attorney Conrad Wolfe obtained from Beernit an admission that he had dispensed liquors upon Sundays at the headquarters of the Eagles lodge and that he had in some instances received money for beer. The judge authorized explanation that any beer dispensed was for the benefit of it and a perfectly lawful procedure, and that contributions of money, if any, were voluntary.

OLD ACCIDENT MAY HAVE CAUSED DEATH

Mrs. Mary Beckman Expires Suddenly at Hospital—Other Deaths.

Within a short time after she had arisen, clothed herself and rested for a time in a rocking chair, Mrs. Mary Beckman, residing in Pleasant township, ten miles south of Fort Wayne, died suddenly at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. Beckman was 55 years of age, and her death may have been due to the effect of injuries sustained in a runaway accident more than a year ago, when an interurban car frightened the horse she was driving and threw Mrs. Beckman from the buggy. She had been a patient at the hospital two weeks. Mrs. Beckman was born in Allen county, May 12, 1853, a daughter of the late Jacob Minnich, of Marion township. For the past thirty-three years Mrs. Beckman had resided in Pleasant township where her husband died twenty years ago. Five children survive. They are Mrs. Charles Bender, of Anderson; Mrs. Clark Beatty, of Ossian; Miss Alice Beckman, of Chicago, Miss Hildegard Beckman and Frank Beckman. Other relatives include five brothers and two sisters—Harmon, Charles, Henry, Philip and Jacob Minnich, Mrs. Louis Kirkhoff, of Pleasant township, and Sister M. Eldeberta, of East St. Louis, Ill. The deceased was an excellent woman and a devoted member of St. Aloysius' Catholic church at Sheldon.

WIEBKE.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Wiebke, wife of Diedrich Wiebke, died at 11 o'clock Tuesday night at the family home, 1315 Hugh street, from heart disease, after an illness of three days.

Mrs. Wiebke was 74 years of age. She was born in Westphalia, Germany, October 29, 1834, and came to America in 1859, the year of her marriage. Surviving members of the family include the husband and six children—Henry Wiebke, Mrs. Fred Fahlberg, Mrs. William Henline, Mrs. August Knoche and William and Frederick Wiebke. There are twenty-six grandchildren and three great grandchildren, besides a sister, Mrs. Ernest Bradmiller.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock from the residence and at 1:00 from St. Paul's Lutheran church.

DEGITZ.

Miss Margaret Degitz, 57 years of age, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the Lutheran hospital from cancer, after an illness of three months.

Miss Degitz was born in Germany and came to Fort Wayne in 1857. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Henry Buche and Miss Barbara Degitz. The remains were removed to the Wellman undertaking rooms.

AUSTIN.

Clarence Austin, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Austin, formerly of Fort Wayne, died Tuesday at the family home at Galesburg, Ill., at the age of 8 years. Death was due to typhoid pneumonia. The remains arrived in Fort Wayne today and were removed to the home of an uncle, Edward B. Cruise, 1217 Pontiac street.

AMERICAN CONSUL RESIGNS.

Man at Ceiba, Honduras, Says Bandits Rule Country.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—The Times-Democrat today prints the following from Ceiba, Honduras:

"I will not serve in a country governed by bandits. You have my resignation." was the terse cablegram sent by Dr. Virgil C. Reynolds to Assistant Secretary Robert Bacon, of the state department at Washington, in renouncing his office as American consul at Ceiba. This action was taken after Dr. Reynolds made an investigation of the recent raid of some Honduras soldiers upon the ranch of Dr. Timoteo Miralida, a lawyer.

Dr. Reynolds in a letter written to the state department some time ago, said that a state of anarchy and misrule existed in Honduras which is almost indescribable.

FROM JAIL TO HOSPITAL.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 18.—John C. Wagner, the writer of the anonymous letters to fifteen prominent citizens who were threatened with instant death if they did not leave South Bend, was removed from the county jail today and taken to the St. Joseph hospital. Poor Tools and a Good Worker

That Is What Makes Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Taste, Foul Breath and Catarrh.

The stomach is a good, strong, vital organ, which is constantly protecting and feeding every other organ of the body.

It is the most abused, neglected and scorned member of man also. Most men abuse their stomach with undercooked food, high living, alcohol, tobacco, pastries and scores of other unhealthy practices.

When the stomach at last sickens of all this abuse and cannot do its full duty, most men are not warned, but keep up their assaults on the stomach until at last it rebels and begins to strike back and cry for help. Man by his own abuse has taken away from the stomach the tools to work with.

These tools are the gastric juices which go to make up the digestive agents. From 7 to 35 pounds of gastric juice are turned into the stomach every day.

When poor, poisonous food consumes this juice, dilutes it, robs it of its strength and throws it, a fermented mass from the system, of course there is just that much of the gastric fluid which cannot be readily supplied by the blood.

When food comes into a stomach filled with depleted fluids lacking of power to do their part, the good, strong stomach is using poor tools and, of course, cannot succeed in its work.

A condition which often prevails is that which takes place when the gastric juice contains too much alkali. If the juice were wholly alkaline it would not only devour and digest the food, but would eat and digest the stomach itself. Such gastric fluid does the digestion no good and attacks the walls of the stomach, making them raw and sore and setting up inflammation and irritation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will strengthen a stomach filled with poor gastric juice. They will remove any abnormal alkaline condition, allay irritation, sweeten the breath, remove catarrhal conditions and digest food no matter how the stomach has acted before.

These little tablets contain an ingredient, one grain of which will digest perfectly 3,000 grains of food. They will digest an entire meal placed in a jar without the aid of any other force except themselves. They have demonstrated this time after time.

Every druggist carries them in stock; price 50c, and 40,000 physicians use them in their practice. Send us your name and address and we will mail you at once a trial package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

BOARDING HOUSE IS RAIDED; FIVE ARRESTED

Judge Skelton Hands Out Fines to Keeper and Four Boarders.

"The fault is all mine. We had a few bottles and a few more, and you can imagine the rest." Thus spoke Edward Mahon on the witness stand in the police court this morning when he was arraigned with Thomas Rogers and Mabel and Mary Darl Hunter on charges of immoral conduct, and Mrs. Brown, of the corner of Clinton and Chestnut streets, on the charge of harboring immoral characters. The police made a raid on the house at 2:30 o'clock this morning and Mahon and Mary Hunter were found in a room in the front of the first floor and Rogers and Mabel Hunter on the second floor. Mrs. Brown was also arrested and the quintet were brought to the station.

Judge Skelton assessed a fine of $10 and costs against Mrs. Brown and the two men and a fine of $5 and costs against the two girls. Jail sentences of ten days that were pinned to the fines against the two men were suspended upon consideration.

All but the proprietor of the boarding house pleaded guilty when their names were called and on the stand Mrs. Brown testified that she did not know what was going on in her house. The testimony of Mahon gave some foundation for this belief, but the fine was imposed anyway.

Mahon while on the stand gave an excellent entertainment for those who can always be found as on-lookers at the court. He was inclined to pass the whole affair off as a joke, although he did want to clear Mrs. Brown. "I asked the landlady," he said, "if we could have some beer, as yesterday was pay day, and we always have to have our fun. She said she did not like it, but said we could have a few and then I got a few more that she did not know about. There was some peach brandy for all of us and some whisky, pretty good stuff, too, you know. Well, all four of us had a taste of it and then you can imagine the rest."

Mahon and Rogers are employed as brakemen on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road and have been staying with Mrs. Brown for about three weeks. The girls have been with her for about eleven weeks. Mrs. Brown has two children of the ages of 14 and 15 and they were left in charge of other boarders when she was brought to the station this morning.

Proprietress Held Trunk. Mrs. Hallie Otto, proprietress of the Otto house, was arrested last evening on the charge of refusing to give up a trunk that she had taken from one Snider, a member of a theatrical troupe that hustled up near here in Ohio and which came to this city to

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health, and insatiable appetite is a sure symptom of diabetes.

It is not what you eat, but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone in Ft. Wayne who is suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of anyone who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They are made from the prescription of a physician who devoted all his time to the study and treatment of stomach troubles. They give very prompt relief, neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, create good digestion and assimilation, naturally regulate the bowels, promote perfect nutrition, and create a permanent cure of all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 45c and 85c. Meyer Bros. Co. Three Drug Stores.

The click of the balls in the pool-rooms continue to make merry and unlawful music at all hours of the night. Minors continue to flock to them and spend money procured in some cases by means of the youthful sports would not like to confess. And so far nothing is doing to suppress the evil.

Would rather be almost anybody just now but Pa Elkins. Pa is having a most distressing time convincing a public, none of whose business it is, that daughter is not, never has been and never will be the fiancée of his royal highness the Duke of the Abruzzi. Pa Elkins' state of temper will sooner or later convince the said public that what he says is not only the truth but what is mainly the matter.

It will probably be found when the legislature is in session that any attempt to repeal the county option law is foredoomed to defeat. A law still untried and its merits wholly untested will not prove an easy thing to erase from the statute books of the state. The probability is that a good many democratic members of the house will be very reluctant to take up any proposals to repeal the law without having first given the people of the state an opportunity to determine by actual experience that the law is not the instrument they desire to employ in eliminating the saloon. As for the senate, it may be accepted as positive that a repeal will not go through that body.

Extremely obliging chap, Mr. Van Vliessen, of Chicago. Mr. Van Vliessen is the real estate artist who raked off something like a million dollars, as now supposed, by pretty work with his cunning pen. Persons involved in the gentleman's real estate deals would like to know whether they are really in possession of the goods or have only the gold brick equivalent of so much and so much earthly soil. Mr. Van Vliessen has kindly consented to forego for a few days a trip to Joliet, Ill., arrangements for which journey and an indefinite sojourn had already been completed. Mr. Van Vliessen is now diligently employed with court officials and other functionaries and experts in a laudable endeavor to sort out genuine deeds and mortgages from the punk and junk and other brands of spurious character which he had on an extensive scale been trading for cash. Mr. Van Vliessen merits the sincere thanks of his late customers and clients.

The national election did not put an end to the hilarious politics of Ohio. Senator Foraker, resplendent in his fresh whitewash and still dear to the people, is making no little headway in promoting his ambition to return to the senate, and President-Elect Taft has suddenly reappeared on the ground; though whether to take a hand in the game or to look on as an innocent bystander is not quite clear. That "Brother Charlie" wants to go to the senate is a mere suspicion, resting on some foundation of appearance and known preference. Theodore E. Burton, the distinguished congressman from Cleveland, also has his eye on that distinction and is supposed to be aided and abetted in that high aspiration by the man still in the white house. Taken all around, the situation is one to give the democrats hope that when a new legislature is elected the majority will be so disposed as not to give the republicans much concern as to what man of the party covets the honor of a nomination as successor to Senator Dick.

Celebrated Makes of Pianos

Handled By the

Geo. Jacobs Music House

Mason & Hamlin, Kranich & Bach, Krakauer, Shoninger, Bogart, Vough, Cable-Nelson, Smith & Barnes, Haddorff, Clarendon, Kellar and Others.

Reasons Why You Should Call at Jacobs Music House Before Purchasing a Piano.

BECAUSE we are sure to please you with an instrument, no matter what price you wish to pay. We give you the best that can be obtained for the money.

BECAUSE we don't tell you we can save you $50 on a piano and at the same time try to get $50 more than the other fellow gets.

BECAUSE we have never had to offer inducements such as guessing and prize contests to stimulate trade. You can't get something for nothing. We give our customers value received.

BECAUSE we positively carry the highest grades of pianos in the city.

BECAUSE you take no chance in buying a piano at the Jacobs music store. He has been selling to your friends and neighbors for nearly twenty years, and is actuated by the desire to give the customer the largest possible value for the money invested.

BECAUSE we don't advertise one thing and do another. We mean what we say.

BECAUSE we are independent of any one manufacturer and buy only what we know to be the best for the money. We have the pick of them all.

BECAUSE we are not obliged to tell you one particular piano is the best on earth because we do not handle a better one; it would not stand comparison.

BECAUSE the pianos we sell are the standard makes of the world and have a fixed value.

BECAUSE we give as good terms as the next man, no matter what they are.

These are facts which you should think over in your mind, and there can be but one conclusion—the Jacobs Music House is the place to buy your piano.

We always have a number of second-hand square and upright pianos that we trade in, which you can buy at almost your own price.

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

NEW PRESIDENT IS REV. WILLIAM SHAMHART

Closing Session of Sunday School Convention Held This Afternoon.

The election of officers of the joint county and city organization of Protestant Sunday schools this afternoon resulted in Rev. W. P. Shamhart, pastor of the West Creighton avenue Church of Christ, being chosen president. The convention, which convened here yesterday morning, closed with the afternoon meeting today. Rev. E. W. Halpenny, state secretary, who has been the prominent figure in the meetings, states that he is well pleased with the progress made in the county, but feels that the attendance at the convention meetings ought to have been larger.

The complete list of officers as elected today is as follows: President—Rev. W. P. Shamhart, Vice President—E. A. K. Hackett, Secretary and treasurer—Mrs. Nettie Hubler.

Superintendent elementary grade—Mrs. Ida F. Minson.

Superintendent temperance department—Mrs. C. W. Bussard.

Superintendent home department—Mrs. J. P. Martin.

Superintendent teachers' training department—Prof. T. H. McCormick.

Superintendent adult bible class department—Rev. W. H. Schrock.

Interest in Meetings Kept Up.

The interest manifested by those who were in attendance at the meetings yesterday continued throughout today and until the convention finally adjourned. For the past three or four weeks the local officers of the organization had been doing all in their power to interest the country people, as well as the city workers, in the convention and posters as well as postal cards and letters were called into service. The attendance of the people from outside the city has not been anything exceptional, but this is partly accounted for when it is considered that it is a very busy season for the soil tillers.

Points Out Opportunities.

The address given this morning by Rev. Halpenny, of Indianapolis, on the "Intermediate Teachers' Opportunity" was one of the most interesting and instructive yet heard. The speaker spoke of three separate and distinct opportunities present to the teacher of the pupil in his intermediate life. The first opportunity is to know the individual at his unknown period, that is the time in life when one understands himself least and is understood the least. The characteristics of this period, according to Rev. Halpenny, are a self-consciousness and an incoming altruistic sentiment which causes club organizations and team play. And here Rev. Halpenny gave several interesting anecdotes of the desire of boys under thirteen or fourteen years of age to enter into games only when they are assured of being the "whole thing."

Miss Emma Kettler was appointed press representative for the county.

Then the teacher has an opportunity to conserve the work of the past and also the opportunities of the future. Whatever step of conversation had been made up to that time, must be reaffirmed during this period and in this the teacher plays a foremost part. Finally, the teacher has an opportunity to help the pupil when most needed and when least realized.

Man Should Teach Men.

Miss Anna Philley was one of those on the morning's program, and in her paper on "The Adult Bible Class," she emphasized the advantage of men being taught the bible by a man, and declared that the present day bible class has not sprung up in a few years but has been the work of many years. She also told how to organize a bible class that it might have the sticking qualities and spoke of the various advantages of such a department.

Rev. Rowand, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, where the convention has been held, had as his subject, "All the Church in the Sunday School and How to Get It There." Rev. Rowand devoted much of his time to methods of interesting the church people in the Sunday school work. He was followed by B. Paul Messman who spoke from the business standpoint of the Sunday school, saying that it ought to be run on exactly the same principles as a big business. He also gave a plea for more liberality in the Sunday school contributions and a movement towards better system.

The Closing Session.

During the afternoon a report from each of the county department superintendents was heard and the recommendations of the nominating committee on officers ratified. Rev. Schrock spoke during the afternoon on "Our Life's Chief Business," and Rev. Shamhart on "The Sunday School as an Evangelistic Force in the Church." Rev. E. W. Halpenny then conducted a meeting that concluded the convention.

The township presidents were elected this morning, and with their post-office addresses are as follows:

St. Joe—S. H. Davis, rural route No. 15, Fort Wayne.

Superintendent Should Plan Ahead.

Rev. E. W. Halpenny's address at the evening session yesterday was upon "The Work of the Superintendent," and in it he brought out very forcibly the necessity for the advantage derived from the superintendent of the Sunday school having his program for every Sunday morning mapped out ahead of time. The program should not always be the same and this method, he explained, would serve to keep the interest of the school students kindled. The students or scholars should not be able to anticipate just what was going to be done, and he also brought out the advantage of having the scholar feel that he has an interested part in the unwinding of the program.

Rev. Halpenny, who is the state secretary, expressed his deepest regrets at not being able to arrive here during the early part of the day yesterday. He had been scheduled to give a short talk at the morning session but was not able to arrive here until late in the afternoon.

Sunday School as School Room.

A short address was given by Prof. T. H. McCormick, instructor in mathematics at the high school and an energetic Sunday school worker. Professor McCormick drew a comparison between the methods employed in the school room and in the Sunday schools and explained that if the latter organizations were run more on the order of the public school room, better results would be obtained. Professor McCormick advanced some excellent ideas as to the manner of teaching the bible. His address was intensely interesting and proved to be food for much thought.

Will Sell Meals to Men.

A new move of the Young Women's Christian association is to sell luncheons and suppers to men. Heretofore only women have had an opportunity to obtain meals at the association rooms owing to lack of room, but a recent arrangement for more space makes it possible to enlarge the circle of work in this department.

The members of the Dorcas junior will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Helen Pennington, in Lakeside.

The Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A prayer meeting service at the Westminster Presbyterian church on West Berry street will be held this evening.

Mrs. Elliott Shulze will entertain the ladies of the Third Presbyterian church at a social tea at her home on December 3.

The helping hand circle, which is Mrs. M. S. Merriam's Sunday school class, will meet at her home, 905 Crescent avenue tomorrow evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Bethany Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. C. Archbold, on Wheeler street. The meeting will be held for the purpose of determining the best method to raise $115 in two months. Mrs. Archbold will be assisted by Mesdames Screen, Leper, Loverton, Leach and Carberry.

Julian F. Franke, secretary of the city waterworks department, is confined to his home by an attack of appendicitis.

PLANNING TO PUSH ITS WORK MORE EFFECTIVELY

New Officers Elected by Christian Association Convention.

Efforts of the concluding day of the state convention of the National Christian association in session at the Bible Training school in Fort Wayne were devoted largely to plans for pushing more effectively its work against membership in secret societies. New officers were elected as follows:

President—Rev. W. Bears, of Peru.

Vice President—Rev. D. Y. Schultz, Fort Wayne.

Secretary—Harley Fisher, of Mexico.

Treasurer—Fred Rohrer, of Bene.

The morning session brought reports from committees and a general consultation over plans whereby the work of the association in Indiana may be made more thorough. The committee on work in the state reported a recommendation that pastors of churches in sympathy with the antiseptic society work be requested to preach at intervals upon the subject in order to unite the workers more closely together.

Committees named during the present session were: On finance—Rev. L. G. Bears, Rev. George Wuelken.

On resolutions—Rev. W. B. Stoddard, Rev. D. Y. Schultz, Rev. H. H. Amstutz.

On state work—Rev. T. P. Baker, Rev. S. C. Wiltmer, Rev. S. E. Rupp.

The feature of Tuesday evening's session was an address by Rev. W. B. Stoddard, of Washington, D. C., who spoke on "The Lodge, a Broken Cistern."

A special committee of one from each church identified with the movement was named to present the work to the churches and secure the appointment of delegates to the next state convention. This committee was composed as follows: Rev. D. Y. Schultz, missionary association, Fort Wayne; Rev. W. T. Loring, Free Methodist church, Fort Wayne; H. A. Fisher, Church of the Brethren, Mexico; Rev. H. A. Clausen, German Reformed church, Garrett; Dr. W. H. Clay, Radical U. B. church, Huntington; Rev. Louis E. Stout, Friends' church, Plainfield; Noah Klag, Amish Mennonite church, Amboy; Rev. Benj. B. King, American Mennonite church, Fort Wayne; Rev. J. W. Cleaver, Conference Mennonite church, Berne; Rev. E. H. Kennedy, Wesleyan M. E. church, Carthage; Rev. J. Beck, Ohio Lutheran synod, Richmond; Rev. W. M. Van der Ploeg, Christian Reformed church, Lafayette.

ADDITIONAL Shop and Rail

Jacob Reiber, of the Pennsylvania shop clerk's office, was summoned home this morning by a message stating that Mrs. Reiber's father, the venerable candymaker, Mr. Batchelder, who has been sick for some time, was much worse and fears of the attack being fatal were apprehended.

Charles W. Hall, general foreman of the Allegheny shops of the Pennsylvania, is in the city today, consulting motive power officials on matters of business and visiting with the "boys."

Mr. Hall resided here several years ago and knows nearly everybody in the Pennsylvania shops.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Anspach, of Oak Harbor, O., who were visiting his brother, George W. Anspach, a day or two, left yesterday over the Wabash for Hot Springs, Ark. Another passenger out of the city over the Wabash yesterday was H. J. Miller, who is going to Brownsville, Texas.

The Hocking Valley company has been admitted to joint ownership of the Toledo Terminal railroad. It is the intention to admit all of the railroads running into Toledo into the Terminal company, but so far only the Pennsylvania, the Lake Shore, the Michigan Central, the Clover Leaf, the Pere Marquette, the Grand Trunk, and the C. & E. D. are connected with the company. The Wabash and Ohio Central will probably be the next to be admitted to the joint ownership.

RHEUMATISM IS NOW EASILY CURED WITH A MIXTURE

Science Says It is a Symptom of Kidneys Which Fail to Sift Out Acids.

Recent hospital reports show that the dread disease, rheumatism, is steadily increasing throughout the country. All known means of relief are being suggested to save the great amount of suffering this winter, especially among those who are not in a position to pack up and visit the noted health resorts to be treated. Recent tests prove rheumatism not exactly a disease in itself, but a severe symptom of kidney trouble, a condition caused by clogged up pores of the eliminative tissues in the kidneys which fail to filter the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, permitting these substances to remain in the veins and decompose, usually settling about the joints and muscles, causing the intense pain, swelling and stiffness of rheumatism.

The following simple home treatment will cure Rheumatism, and is harmless and inexpensive and so simple that anybody can mix it at home. The ingredients are: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Go to any good prescription pharmacy and get these three harmless ingredients and mix them by shaking in a bottle, taking as a dose a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is nothing better in the world for backache, kidney and bladder trouble, too. Such symptoms as frequent and painful urination, soreness, weakness, general and nervous debility are caused by certain acids and poisonous waste matter, decayed tissue, etc., in the blood, which the kidneys will clear and purify after a few doses of this prescription.

MINISTERIAL INSTITUTE TO BACK COUNTY OPTION

Resolutions Pledge United Influence to Preserve Law Just Passed.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 18.—The Ministerial Institute of the Northwest Indiana Conference, went on record yesterday afternoon as opposed to any legislation which would repeal the county local option bill or which would destroy the reorganization law. Rev. E. S. Shumaker, of Indianapolis, and Rev. George E. Hickson, of South Bend, officials of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, spoke. They said a number of liquor nominees were defeated and that the returns did not indicate a victory for the saloon. This resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the ministers of the South Bend district of the Methodist Episcopal church, in annual session at Laporte, give unqualified indorsement to the action of the special session of the general assembly in passing the county option law; that we pledge our united influence in retaining the law upon the statute books; that we pledge our support to all friends of this law in the general assembly, regardless of party; that we give our hearty indorsement to the policies of the Anti-Saloon league, and will stand heroically by its representatives, E. S. Schumaker, state superintendent, and George E. Hicks, superintendent of the South Bend district."

The city of Milwaukee has almost abolished the use of horses in all municipal departments.

A FAT BABY Usually Evidence of Proper Feeding.

Babies grow very rapidly and if they do not get the right kind of food they grow backwards instead of forwards; that is, when their food is not nourishing they grow thin and cross and some of them die from the lack of the right kind of food. A girl writes: "My aunt's baby was very delicate and was always ill. She was not able to nurse it and took it to one doctor after another, but none of them did the child any good."

"One day mother told my aunt to try Grape-Nuts for the baby, but she laughed and said if the doctors couldn't do the baby any good, how could Grape-Nuts? But mother said, 'try it anyway.'"

"So my aunt put one tablespoonful of Grape-Nuts in a quart cup of hot water and when the food was soft she added as much milk as water and gave that to the baby."

"In a month and a half you would hardly have known that baby. It was so fat and thrived so fast. A neighbor ask my aunt what made the baby so healthy and fat when only six weeks before it was so thin. She said 'Grape-Nuts.' The neighbor got Grape-Nuts for her baby and it was soon as fat as my aunt's child."

"There's a reason."

LABOR CHIEFS MEET HIGH OFFICIALS OF NATION

President, Cabinet and Judges Dine With Heads or Organizations.

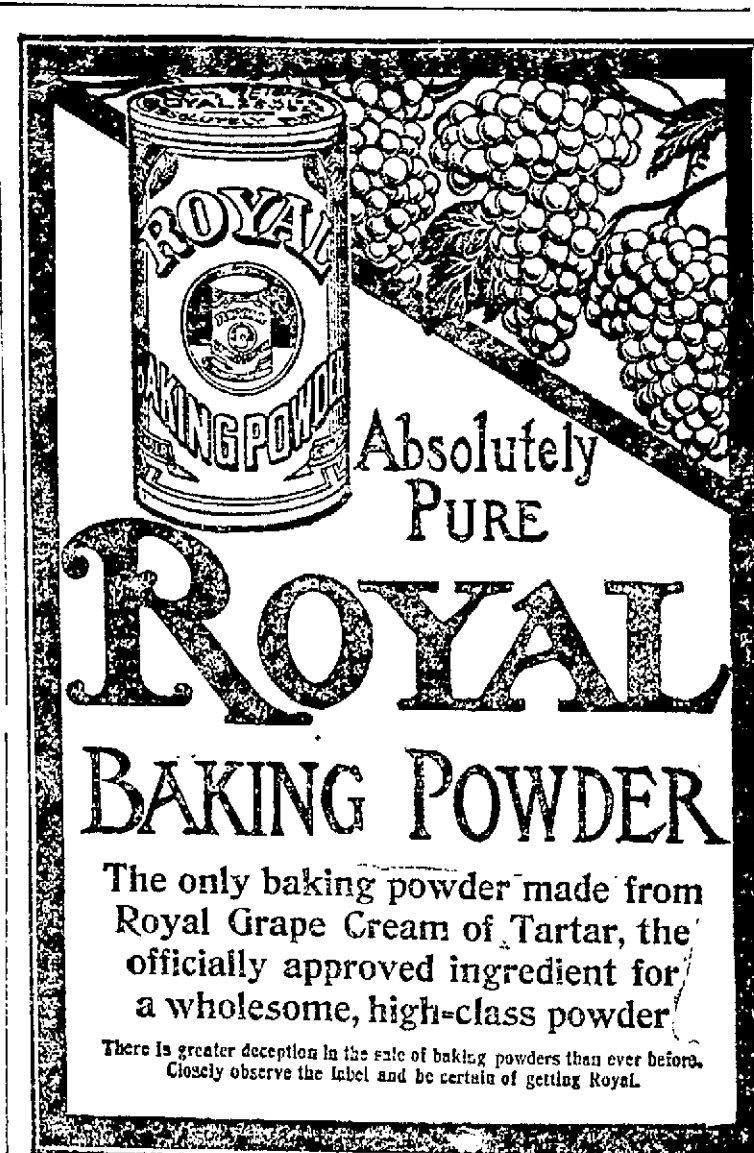

Washington, Nov. 18.—Acknowledgment of labor's assistance in bringing about the election of William H. Taft, with promise of friendship in the future, was made last night by President Roosevelt when he entertained at dinner representatives of labor and its interests. Gathered in the state dining-room with those who are high in the councils of organizations of men who work for their daily bread were two justices of the supreme court of the United States, two members of the cabinet, a representative in congress, a representative of the army, the state department and the three members of the staff of The Outlook.

Second only to the event itself, which is unique in the history of the white house, was the absence of representatives of the American Federation of Labor. This is attributed to its attitude during the campaign and the opposition of President Samuel Gompers to the republican party. In addition to Mr. Gompers, Vice President James Connell and Secretary Frank Morrison of the federation were not invited. John Mitchell, Daniel J. Keefe and James Duncan, though invited, were not present. Some reason for the failure of the last three to accept was found in the fact of their attendance at the annual meeting of the labor convention in Denver.

Old Rule Is Broken.

It remained for organized labor to break the rule that an invitation to the white house is a commendation. More famous men than the last three men named, who declined their invitations, have traveled a greater distance than from Denver to Washington to be guests of the president.

Because of the size and mixed character of the company the discussion of labor interests and its future was general in its character. The dinner afforded an opportunity for leaders of laboring men to meet on common ground men of prominence in the government, some of whom will probably continue to hold places of influence during the next administration.

Nell of the federal bureau of labor, Commissioner E. E. Clark of the interstate commerce commission, formerly grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors of America; T. V. Powderly, ex-president of the Knights of Labor and now chief of the bureau of information in the immigration service; Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon, Major General Leonard Wood, Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States, and United States Attorney Henry L. Shinson of New York, all from the executive departments of the government, were present.

Representative Herbert Parsons, of New York, was the only member of congress at the dinner.

FRANK ROMAINE HAS SIGNED UP WITH LOCALS

Matter Was Kept Quiet
at Request of the Pitcher.

Frank Romaine, who has worked with the Fort Wayne Shamrocks and who was with the local Central league team for a few weeks last season, has signed a contract with Claude H. Vane for next year and will be on the pitching staff in 1909.

His first performance in the league was on the home lot and he pitched as good a game as was seen on the lot during the year, but his next time out he was pounded for further orders and his release followed which made him a bit sore. The contract was signed at the request of Manager Earl Cleary of the Shamrocks, who has all confidence in Romaine's ability as a pitcher, but it was signed with the understanding that it was not to be made public during the winter. This understanding was for purely business reasons but the news has been published at Kendallville where he is located and has become public property.

His signature was obtained after the last game played by the Shamrocks this season and was the outcome of a change of heart on the part of Manager Earl Cleary. He left after the season was over that Romaine had not been given a fair chance and he determined to hand him. The pitcher was certainly a bit sore at his treatment but Manager Cleary persuaded him to forget it and sign a contract.

He is not only a good steady pitcher but he is a better and it would not be a bit surprising to see him in one of the outfield positions as he is fast, covers a lot of ground, has left handedness and has all the earmarks of a good performer with the stick. Another thing in his favor is that he is a young fellow of good habits, a hard worker and will probably stick in the league.

The healing household remedy, Satin skin cream should always be handy. 25c.

ATHLETIC CLUB NOT EXCEPTED UNDER EDICT

Chicago Police Arrest Members for Putting on Fight.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—Principals in the boxing show given for members last Saturday night at the Illinois Athletic club were haled into court yesterday to face charges of having committed an offense under the Illinois statutes for which the maximum penalty is six months in jail, or a fine of $500, or both. Captives from the municipal court for Clarence Green, manager, and Charles J. Zeller, chairman of the athletic committee of the I. A. C. Leo Fontanelli and Mike Memsick were served at the club by Detectives Crandall and Richmond.

William Boline and Walter Little, who with Memsick and Fontanelli figured in the two bouts staged at the club, were not so easily located. Following the arrest, the first named four accompanied the officers next door to the municipal court, where H. Hallenstein, a resident at the I. A. C., signed a bond for $500 for each of the prisoners.

"There was no prize fight—not even a boxing contest," said Zeller after the police had accompanied the chairman over to court. "There were some men there who had on boxing gloves, or rather pillows, and they went through some of the motions, but the whole thing was a farce. It was only a little stunt put on in between the wrestling to give the spectators some amusement. Two men got into the ring, and when they had made a few awkward motions to the amusement of the crowd, time was called. It was not nearly so strenuous as an act put on at one of the theaters in the city."

Zeller charged them with conduct, and promoting a boxing contest, said Assistant Chief Schmittler, "and I guess we will be able to prove it when we get into court. The law says there shall be no boxing and we have arrested a half-dozen for violating the statutes and we will arrest them again if they attempt to do the same thing."

"I gave orders for the arrest of the men engaged in the exhibition," explained Police Shippy. "It is the policy of the administration that there shall be no boxing and there will be none. The position of the administration was known to the men who promoted and engaged in the contest and now we will see that they are punished only a little."

"Soon after Mayor Busse was elected the Chicago Athletic association announced a boxing contest and we sent men to witness it. Immediately afterward it was publicly announced there would be no more boxing within the corporate limits while the mayor remains in office. Now, because of the infringement at the Illinois Athletic club Saturday night, some persons have an idea that the Ild has been lifted. They have guessed wrong. The Ild is on, and, if anything, it will be clamped down tighter."

A 36-inch pump with 36,000 gallons capacity on a 24-foot lift, was operated at a fuel cost of 82½ cents an hour. What-ever irrigation is being attempted on the Mexican side is being done through the pumping system, and there is every prospect that more and more of it will be attempted by the owners of land along the river.

President Asked to Make Carlisle Indians
Keep Engagement.

Denver, Col., Nov. 18.—President Roosevelt has been asked to use his influence in having a contract between representatives of Denver university and the Carlisle Indian school for a football game lived up to. The game is scheduled for December 6th, in this city. Yesterday received word from Carlisle that the game was off; that leave of absence could not be secured for so long a journey.

Capitain Schultz, bandaged and lame, was in the signal tower last night and is gradually limbering up from the punishment that he received in the Pennsylvania game. He will make an attempt to play for the last time next Saturday, but if he goes down and out Michigan has no hope of holding the rubbers of the Syracuse boys. Afterward in his suit this afternoon and thus severed his connection with the team for the rest of the season.

The team leaves Thursday night and will have a light signal workout here before the departure.

WILL HEAR THE REBELS.

National Commission Has Not Declined to Hear Controversy.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 18.—The statement given out in Chicago during the recent meeting of the National association to the effect that the national commission would refuse to hear either side of the controversy between the National association and the Eastern league and American association was branded as untrue yesterday when August Herrmann of the national commission announced to President Pat T. Powers of the Eastern league that the national commission was ready and willing to hear either or both sides of the controversy at any time.

Mr. Herrmann added, however, that any action taken when the case was heard would depend upon what power the commission had in its premises, and, secondly, on the merits of the case. However, this insures the "bolters" a hearing before the supreme body of baseball.

The Eastern league and the American association at the Chicago meeting asked that they be classed alone as class A, while the other leagues now in class A be reduced to class B. Upon the refusal of the national association to do this the two organizations left the meeting, and at the time it was announced that the national commission would refuse to consider either side of the controversy.

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Story Corner for Base Ball Fans

Possibly Artie Latham was the funniest man that ever participated in the great national pastime, the game of baseball. You know that Artie was the prize cut-up, but those who patronize baseball of the present day are quite prone to believe that "German" Schaffer is the funniest player for the Detroit Americans. It is about the most humorous fellow that ever broke in. It's a poor day when "German" doesn't pull off some funny stunt. In fact, his antics have become so much a part of the Detroit mode of play that it is unusually quiet in any certain camp the fanatics go home rather disappointed.

One of the recent games between the Tigers and the Clevelanders brought to light some of the comedian's best humor. The diamond was wet, and the game was deferred some three-quarters of an hour while the efficient groundskeeper massaged and ironed the surface of the lot. The players looked on in great shame, in the convenient manner, took recess as an occasion of fun.

Schaffer had been working near the third base conching line, and the taking in fact, that portion of the stand had been having some fun with him. Schaffer saw a chance to get even so he borrowed a camera, squinted through the view finder, requested the populace to look pleased and prepared to make a photograph.

As a matter of fact, Schaffer knew about as much concerning the taking of a picture as a Zulu does about Latin. But he went through with the joke. Some of the time the fanatics were laughing up and grinning in great shape, no doubt expecting the papers of the coming morning to contain a huge view of "German" Schaffer, photographer.

Schaffer to say the photo was never printed.

One of his favorite stunts is to coach at first base when the station is occu-

NOSE STOPPED UP AND INCESSANT COUGH.

Gentlemen—I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh. I tried a great deal of medicine, but without benefit. Several doctors told me I could not be cured. I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I could scarcely breathe. I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote to you. On your recommendation I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles, I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. I will always be glad to recommend it to other sufferers.

Very respectfully, M. L. WESSELMAN.

CURED OF CATARRH.

Dear Sirs:—At the age of five years I contracted a bad case of Catarrh. It began with a blood-tinged mucus from my nose. The matter falling into my throat kept me constantly hacking and spitting, and my breath, too, was loaded with offensive odor. I tried various treatments and doctors and was finally given up to die. I then took S. S. S. according to directions and in due course of time my Catarrh was entirely cured. My voice was restored and I have enjoyed good health ever since.

I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier on earth. Not only did it cure my Catarrh but I have known of its being used in other cases with equally satisfactory results.

LOYAL LEGION NOW HAS BRANCH IN DISTRICT

Was Organized at Auburn With Fort Wayne Men as Officers.

Former army officers residing in the Twelfth congressional district, held a meeting at Auburn Monday and organized the Twelfth district branch of the Loyal Legion. All of the officers are from Fort Wayne, as follows:

President—Capt. Scott Swann, 88th Indiana volunteers.
Vice President—Capt. W. A. Kelsey, 152d Indiana volunteers.
Treasurer—Lieut. John W. Sale, 47th Indiana volunteers.

Fort Wayne will be the headquarters of the organization, and the Auburn meeting adjourned to reassemble at the call of the president. The organization is composed wholly of former officers of the union army, and it is expected that a banquet will be held in Fort Wayne soon, to which the state Loyal Legion officers will be invited.

Every county in the Twelfth congressional district was represented at the Auburn meeting except Whitley, which, so far as is known, has no ex-union officer now living within its borders. Noble county has seven, Lagrange three, DeKalb four, Steuben four and there are enough in Fort Wayne and Allen county to bring the total to near fifty.

BRYAN WILL MAKE A FOURTH RACE IF PARTY CALLS

Would Rather Not, But if Conditions Demand It He Will Run.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 18.—"If the party so demands and conditions arise to warrant it, I will be a candidate for the presidency four years hence," said William J. Bryan, who, after a duck hunt in this vicinity, spent the evening in this city.

"I would much prefer to retire to private life," Mr. Bryan continued, "and I hope that four years hence circumstances will not be such as to force me into the campaign. But if circumstances should demand me to battle, battle I will."

"The burden carried by the candidate is heavy, but no heavier than that carried by an officeholder. I do not desire ever to be a candidate for office again, but it is a difficult matter to make a rule for the future."

Cannot Tell of Future.

"What the plans will be four years from now I am unable to say. The newspapers are the ones making the plans, but whether or not they will be accepted by the democratic party is a matter of conjecture."

"The democratic party is very much alive and will be in the fight at the next presidential election. Further than this I do not care to say more on the subject of politics at this time."

Asked if he would accept election to the United States senate from Nebraska two years hence, Mr. Bryan replied: "If the legislature of Nebraska should elect me, I would accept. I consider the position of United States senator next to that of the presidency."

Mr. Bryan and his wife arrived in San Antonio this morning. Mr. Bryan was given a hearty welcome at the depot by hundreds. Immediately after breakfast he left in an automobile for a duck hunt at a lake fifteen miles from here and spent the day there in company with a few close friends.

Full Bag of Ducks.

Clad in a duck suit, with high rubber boots, Mr. Bryan forgot political questions in his ardent desire to bring in a bag of birds. The sport proved good, and by 1 o'clock he had killed the limit—twenty-five ducks. He returned to the city and in the afternoon made a brief non-political address.

Mr. Bryan left for Corpus Christi last night to attend the deep water ways convention. He will remain there several days enjoying a hunt. From there he goes to Mexico for two weeks. He then will return to Galveston, where he will hunt ducks for four weeks.

Mr. Kern is proprietor of the Acme bowling alleys and is a son of Ms. Charlotte Kern. The bride is also well known and has many friends here as the Wynant family made their home in this city for a number of years, removing to Cleveland a few weeks ago.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Burke-Magers. A pretty wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Julia Magers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Magers, of 2515 Thompson avenue, and Mr. Clarence Burke, which was solemnized at 9 o'clock in St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev. J. F. Delaney officiated at the nuptial mass. The attendants were Miss Martha Knecht and Mr. Al Tromsey. The bride wore a handsome reception gown of champagne silk and a white hat trimmed with white plumes. Instead of a bouquet the bride carried a prayerbook with marker of white satin ribbon and swanstonia. Miss Knecht wore a blue silk with white hat and held white chrysanthemums. After the church service the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents where the wedding breakfast was served. In the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock the bride and groom received their friends informally. The house decorations were wedding bells, ferns and chrysanthemums and the bride's table was trimmed with smilax and swanstonia. In the evening the bride and groom went to Chicago for a few days' visit. On their return they will be at home with the bride's parents for the present. For traveling Mrs. Burke wore a brown cloth tailored suit with a stylish brown felt hat. Mrs. T. J. Guinn and son, Robert, of Denver, Col., and Mrs. George Ohneck, of Covington, Ky., both aunts of the bride, were present at the wedding.

COUNTRY ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Carrie Noble held a carpetbag social and served an oyster supper in the schoolhouse in District No. 1, St. Joe township, last week, with success. The entertainment netted the sum of $55.20. Miss Noble will expend the money for school purposes and thanks patrons and many friends for their co-operation in the effort she made.

A Model Directoire Gown

Directly in keeping with the styles of the season, yet lacking their extreme features, is this charming costume of faint rose hued satin. The high waist line is suggested and also the over blouse, which is a salient feature of this year's dressy frocks. The rounded gumples of cream embroidered net lies over a small chemise of lace, which joins the collar. The blouse itself, of the satin, is richly embroidered with soutache and is trimmed further with round crochet buttons. Classic grace is given by the long fringed satin scarf in a deeper shade of rose color.

Concordia Concert Program. An excellent program has been prepared for the concert on Friday evening next to be given at Concordia college by the senior and junior classes. Besides violin and piano solos and vocal music there will be three humorous dialogues. One, "The School Examinations," will bring to mind the good old days when the village school, the schoolmaster and his ferule and visits of the school board were as familiar to the student as his books. The second dialogue is a German opera, entitled, "Laudmilla von Blasewitz." It is replete with wit and humor and is a far better selection than "Bremer-Strassensänger," which made a hit at a previous concert. "Naucke vor Gericht," will be a number that will bring plenty of applause. The program in detail is as follows:—

Program.—
"Die Himmel Ruhmen".....Handel
Mixed Choir.
Piano Duet—Zar and Zimmermann
.....Loertzling
G. Deyer and Ed Heckman.
English Dialogue, School Examination
The Goblins.....James W. Riley
Octet '09.
Violin Solo—Angels Sernade.....G. Brga
E. Smukal.
Operetta—Die Laudmilla von Blasewitz
Piano Solo—Rigoletto.....Verdi
M. Heinicke.
When the Little Ones Say, "Good Night".....Octet '10.
German Dialogue.....
....."Naucke von Gericht"
Das Lied.....John Pestallz
Classes '09 and '10.

FOR SNAPSHOTS.

An album of brown paper in which to stick all one's photographs is a most useful thing. A friend of mine has one—merely sheets of brown paper tied together at the back with ribbon ties, and with tiny slits into which the corners of the photographs can be fixed.—Home Chat.

TO KEEP ONE'S COMPLEXION.

Careful abstinence and the use of good soap, strict attention to diet, plenty of outdoor exercise, an occasional mild aperient and a little cold cream rubbed well into the face on a windy day, also on retiring, will secure for any one a complexion to be envied.—Woman's Life.

Liquor selling was prohibited in England as early as the reign of the Saxon King Edgar, who closed hundreds of ale-houses.

IN THE THEATERS

Comments on the beauty and wonderful interest of the play, "The Servant in the House," which appears for the close of the engagement tonight, are frequent and of the greatest praise. "Better than a religious revival in its influence for good," was the way one of the most prominent physicians in the city referred to it today. The company presenting the play calls forth equal and enthusiastic praise. Creston Clarke, Clay Clement, George W. Wilson, Stanley Drewitt, Mrs. Collier and Miss Shannon, are presenting the drama with unquestioned dramatic skill and artistic finish.

The farce, "Charley's Aunt," will be presented at the Majestic tomorrow by Our Own Stock company with Mr. Jones in the leading role.

At the Lyric.

An act that is mystifying the audiences at the Lyric this week is the mind reading and telepathy of Voletie and Old. While blindfolded Voletie describes articles worn by people in the audience and she gives inscriptions, dates and numbers accurately and rapidly. The Trolley Car Trio, Byrne Golsen players, Gladys Middleton are other new things of the bill that take well. This is the last week of the three performances a day. Beginning on next Monday the policy will be to give two shows daily, matinee at 2:30 and evening performance at 8:30 and the shows to be made up from eastern artists in vaudeville.

Fads for Women

Lovely little bows for finishing a collar can be made from two tiny medallions in Irish crochet lace. If very small, a frill of narrow valenciennes sewed around each one will not only increase its size but be an improvement.

The motifs are caught together with a couple of stitches and a pin will conceal the connection. Four medallions arranged two and two is pretty and fairly looking. Of course, these accessories so fashioned will cost only about half the price of the same kind seen in the shops ready for wear.

Waistcoat for Variety

The dress problem that confronts the average woman is how to make the best effect with the least money, and it is to those with limited incomes that I commend the use of waistcoats and jabots. For, fortunately, both are popular and give an extraordinary variety to the appearance of one's frocks. Either of these worn with a skirt and jacket, the latter either a cutaway or of the loose, three-quarter lengths that open at the throat, and has either large or small revers, will complete a smart costume.

Under no circumstances, however, must the coat be so cut as necessarily to fasten, for then the waistcoat becomes superfluous and variety is not possible. Another advantage this style has is that the coats flare or hang loose and open in front this season, making a vest almost essential.

To give variety to one suit, three or four waistcoats should be made, the materials to be chosen including chamol, leather, brocade, heavy ribbed silk and cut velvet. The models for this accessory vary according as they are intended for morning or afternoon wear, and so are plain or fancy.

A vest for morning use or walking may be of chamol or one of the soft leathers, a light shade always being best. Chamol is, of course, practically yellow, and leathers range in different shades of tan. A plain ladies' cloth in pale gray would be possible, but cloth is apt to lack the distinction the leathers possess.

Directoire styles in waistcoats are adopted, but the vest must reach only one or two inches below the waist line in the front.

As to the waist worn with such a suit it should be of linen, or at least a linen collar and small tie must be used to accentuate the tailored effect, as distinguished from any softness reserved for afternoon garments.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation as confidently to a baby as to a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be used in adult. For sale by all druggists.

Bitter Scotch Marmalade

Seville oranges are best for this marmalade, which is held in high esteem at British breakfasts. To make it according to an old Scotch recipe, press the juice out of a number of oranges, then put the rinds in the preserving kettle with plenty of water to cover, and cook until soft, adding more water as it boils away. When very soft turn into a stout jelly bag and squeeze out all the jelly obtainable. Mix with the uncooked juice, and to every pint allow a pound and a half of sugar. Cook twenty minutes, then test by dropping a little on a cold plate. Push your fingers through it and if it curls take from the fire and pour at once into small pots or glasses. Let stand overnight uncovered, then tie with branded paper or cover with paraffine.

PLEA FOR MEDICAL INSPECTION IN SCHOOLS

Dr. J. N. Hurty Says State is Criminally Remiss
in the Matter.

Addressing a meeting at the court house assembly room Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Fort Wayne Medical Society, Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the Indiana board of health, made a powerful plea for medical inspection of the schools.

"Out of the 1,329 school children in Indiana who died during the year 1907, I believe that fully 80 per cent were murdered by the state, and I also believe that 60 per cent of all school children at the present time need proper physical examination," declared Dr. Hurty with emphasis. He told of experiences which revealed a large proportion of school children suffering from physical defects which made it impossible to do their work properly. "We allow our school children to suffer and die," said Dr. Hurty, "all for the want of a little care and attention upon the part of the state. By a simple medical inspection of the children many hundreds of lives could be saved each year, and yet we cry that we have no money with which to do the work. Shame on us."

Dr. H. O. Bruggeman, Dr. A. P. Buchman, Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman and others followed Dr. Hurty briefly. The physicians told of their efforts to secure medical inspection for the Fort Wayne schools, and of the fact that there was no money with which to carry it out. Dr. Buchman urged the people to bring sufficient pressure to bear upon the school authorities to compel the establishing of a department of medical inspection.

THE SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

COMMENCE MOVING TOMORROW.

Foster Waist Factory Ready for Occupancy.

The move into the new factory erected by S. M. Foster & Company for the manufacture of women's shirt waists is about to take place, the building being practically finished. Commencing tomorrow business at shop will be entirely suspended and the entire force will commence the work of transferring machinery and stock to the new home across the street. The new factory will have about seventy-five more machines than the old one, and a corresponding increase in the number of operators. The new factory will be in operation next week and will be turning out shirt waists by the thousands every day thereafter.

DOING BIG BUSINESS.

G. R. & I. Has All Its Engines in Service.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana road is having a good business at present and has all its locomotives in service. The traffic, which is said to be as heavy, if not heavier, than that of any previous time in the history of the road, is chiefly coal, coke, merchandise and structural iron, with a fair amount of grain. So far the weather has been favorable to the movement of trains and the business is carried on without difficulty.

SURPRISED THE SHOPMAN.

About forty men, who comprise the greater portion of the working force at the Pennsylvania round house, marched to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schmitt, on Pontiac street, last evening and presented them with a complete dining-room outfit and then enjoyed the hospitality of the jolly couple three or four hours. The round house quartet, composed of Charles Schirmeyer, George Yeager, Grover Klug and L. Knob, and Louis Deck, the expert manipulator of the mandolin and guitar, were in the party and contributed greatly to the hilarity and enjoyment of the occasion. A supper also figured in the program and it was 11:30 when the "boys" bade their host and hostess "good night" and departed for home. Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt were recently married at her home in Summit, Ind., and the party last evening was in honor of that event. He is employed at the round house.

ENGINEER COWEN RETURNS.

M. R. Cowen, the Pennsylvania engineer whose duty it is to "tame" engines after they have been rebuilt, has returned to the city and will soon report for work. Mr. Cowen was at Hot Spring, Ark., several weeks, taking treatment for rheumatism. He is much better than he was before he went there.

MARRIED HIS FIRST LOVE.

W. L. Blair superintendent of transportation of the Nickel Plate, with headquarters in Cleveland, was quietly married last Saturday evening to Mrs. Ella Brant Elliott, the ceremony being performed at the home of that lady in Hamilton, Ohio, and the only witness being the mother. Mrs. Blair was Ella Brant before her marriage to Elliott and she was Mr. Blair's sweetheart in her girlhood when both resided in Hamilton. Mr. Blair married Stella Curtis, who died some years ago. Mr. Elliott also died several years ago and chance brought the widow and the widower together and their marriage followed. Mrs. Blair was postmistress of Hamilton for several years, having succeeded her husband, who died while in office.

HIS LAST STAG PARTY.

Tomorrow evening, at the Wayne club, A. J. Morell, foreman of the wheel department of the Pennsylvania machine shop, will be the guest of honor at a stag party, the other members of which will be Arthur Benke, Theodore Dodane, Joe Siegel, Chancery Stevens, Louis Blase, Carl Zurchmühlen and Marshall Cominacovich. Mr. Morell will be married next Wednesday to a charming young lady in Van Wert, and the party tomorrow night will be, as one of the boys said, "his last bachelor days' banquet." Mr. Benke will be the toastmaster and each of the banqueters will respond to toasts. After the dinner, which will begin at 8 o'clock, will come cards and a generally good time.

AN AFFLICTED FAMILY.

The family of Engineer H. M. Turner, of the G. R. & I., is sorely afflicted. A few weeks ago Mrs. Turner was operated upon for appendicitis and before she had fully recovered the bright little three-year-old son was stricken with diphtheria and died. Now the bereaved mother is suffering severely from the dread malady. The home is under quarantine restrictions and Engineer Turner is off duty as a result.

SPECIAL TRAIN TONIGHT.

A special train, made up of private cars of general managers and other high officials of eastern railways, will pass through the city at 9 o'clock this evening over the Pennsylvania. The officials have been in attendance at the American Railway association's convention at Chicago, which will close today, and are going to their respective homes.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF WRECK.

Jarvis Snape, a yard fireman whose engine figured in the collision on the Wabash near Springfield last Friday, in which W. D. Williams and H. E. Wolf were instantly killed, has died of his injuries, making the third victim of that accident. The accident was given in detail by The Sentinel last Friday.

WINTER TOURISTS' RATES.

All of the Fort Wayne ticket agents have received the rate sheets for the winter tourists' business, which begins tomorrow. So far as a hasty examination of the sheet goes the rates to all points are the same as last year. The business promises to be better than it was last winter.

WRECK IN WABASH YARDS.

Four freight cars and the car scales in the Wabash shops were temporarily put out of commission at 4 o'clock this morning by an accident. A car not in the clear was sideswiped by others being pushed by an engine and one of the cars was crowded against the scales. Nobody was hurt.

MOVING TO FORT WAYNE.

A. H. Hartwick, a Grand Rapids and Indiana fireman, with headquarters at Grand Rapids, has been given a change at his own request which admits of a residence in this city. He is now bringing his family down here and this will be his home in the future.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The Lake Shore has a gang of carpenters at work renewing the structural part of the bridge spanning the creek near the Eckart packing house, and repairing the bridge on the spur track leading to the Pennsylvania tracks. I. A. Keime is in charge of the work.

Three car loads of United States soldiers passed through the city last evening, two over the Nickel Plate en route to Chicago, where they were delivered to the Northwestern, and one over the Wabash. The latter was delivered to the Wabash by the Nickel Plate at New Haven.

A Pennsylvania shopman yesterday received a letter bearing the signature of Rev. Edward M. Faller, of New Albany, Ind., who is in the hospital in that city, recovering from the effects of a surgical operation. Over fifty years ago Father Faller was pastor of the St. Mary's Catholic church in this city and there still reside here upwards of fifty people who were his parishioners at that time and they will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering. Father Faller is eighty-six years old.

If it's a good thing Seavey's have it

$69.00

That's what a peddler would charge you.

We don't charge such fancy prices. Here is the proposition that we want to submit to all you people. Would you rather pay $69 TO A PEDDLER for a range when WE CAN GIVE YOU A BETTER ONE, and guarantee it FOR $50 LESS.

Where is your peddler when your guarantee needs attention?

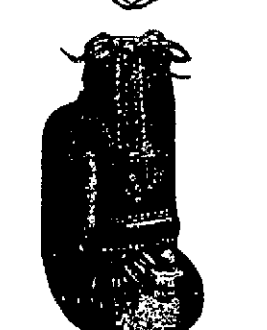

That is common sense talk in a nutshell. When we sell you a stove we stand by our warrant and you can always find us at the old stand when you need us. We never misrepresent our goods, because we want your trade, not for this sale only, but in the future as well.

Call and see the most complete line of Cook Stoves and Ranges that has ever been shown you.
